

Unplugging from Controlling Attachments

We are in unprecedented times. Humanity is transitioning from the “separation” paradigm to the “unity” paradigm.

Earth, the classroom for our souls, is circulating completely different energies which comprise our vibrational atmosphere. As we take this journey across the threshold of a new era, our energy fields are adjusting. Our defenses that kept up separate are beginning to fade. This is what our souls have been longing for.

Until we are able to immerse ourselves fully in the new energetic atmosphere, we have some work to do. We must close out on all old paradigm lessons and adjust our beliefs, mind-set and emotional reactions to calibrate our energy fields to operate comfortably in the new energetic atmosphere.

The transition period leaves us vulnerable to old paradigm entities (which cling to fear and darkness) as we are closing the books on our old paradigm lessons. These beings are typically opportunistic and will look for openings, cracks, perforations and vulnerabilities in the energy field for which to attach themselves and syphon energetic fuel.

The 7 keys that appear in this tool are called the 7 Seals of Samuel and they summon the soul wisdom of benevolent and masterful beings who devoted multiple incarnations to studying entities which prey on vulnerabilities and sabotage the energy field to roadblock progress.

The exercise on the following page has you call in the wisdom of these benevolent beings to assist you in fortifying the vulnerabilities in your field that invite entities to engage you.

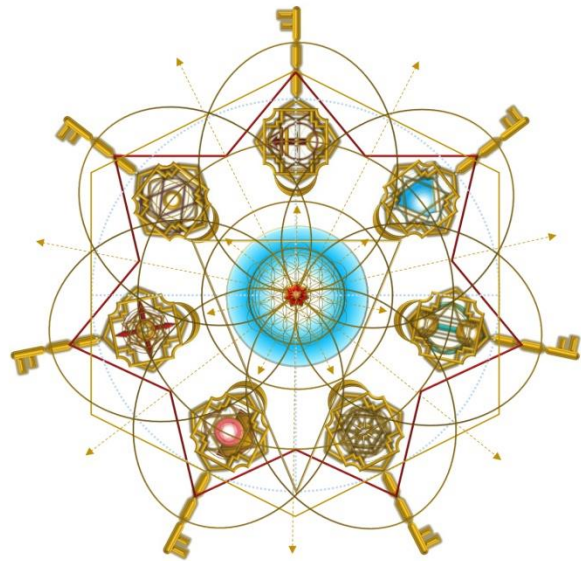

State the intentions followed by the affirmations. Then activate the visualization and do the tapping as instructed with the intent to amplify the energy of the energy of the affirmations.

Unplugging from Controlling Attachments

Intentions:

I choose to revoke all implied and actual permissions granted to any controlling energy attachment present in or around my energy field that does not currently serve my highest and best good. I offer the Light of Divine Source and release these attachments with gratitude, forgiveness and love.

Call in the highest energetic expression of the benevolent beings associated with these 7 keys for assistance.

Affirmations:

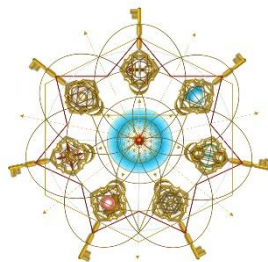

I am a sovereign and conscious being of light. I am the Master of my energy field, and I am fully aligned with the light of Divine Source.

Visualization:

Project the energy of this symbol onto the floor in front of you. Step into the center of it. Visualize golden energy pouring from your heart chakra and meeting with golden energy pouring from the center of each key. Let the energy merge with yours and surround your entire energy field.
